

VENERA
GRANDE RESERVA
Old Vines and Touriga Nacional

Sourced from carefully selected vineyards planted along the banks of the Douro River at an altitude of 200 metres, this wine expresses the intensity and complexity that define the region, featuring Touriga Nacional, Portugal's emblematic grape variety.

During the day, full sun exposure favours the ripening of the grapes, while the cool nights, typical of riverside vineyards, help preserve freshness, acidity, and aromatic purity.

Aromatically, Venera Grande Reserva is unmistakable. 100% Touriga Nacional, it reveals notes of violets and orange blossom, a superb expression of the variety.

On the palate, its structure, density, fruit, and subtle oak elevate it to a class of its own, showcasing why this grape is considered the queen of the Douro.
